Understanding cables

Every cable message consists of three parts:

- The top box shows each cables unique reference number, when and by whom it originally was sent, and what its initial classification was.
- The middle box contains the header information that is associated with the cable. It includes information about the receiver(s) as well as a general subject.
- The bottom box presents the body of the cable. The opening can contain a more specific subject, references to other cables (browse by origin to find them) or additional comment. This is followed by the main contents of the cable: a summary, a collection of specific topics and a comment section.

To understand the justification used for the classification of each cable, please use this WikiSource article as reference.

Discussing cables

If you find meaningful or important information in a cable, please link directly to its unique reference number. Linking to a specific paragraph in the body of a cable is also possible by copying the appropriate link (to be found at the paragraph symbol). Please mark messages for social networking services like Twitter with the hash tags #cablegate and a hash containing the reference ID e.g. #05LIMA2601.

SUBJECT: PERU PONDERERS DANINO OR OTHERS FOR IDB PRESIDENCY

Classified By: ACTING ECON COUNSELOR DAVID LIPPEATT, REASONS 1.4 B) AND D)

1. (SBU) At least five major Peruvian dailies, plus "The Economist," have speculated over the last week that the GOP will make a major push for the candidacy of a Peruvian to replace IDB President Enrique Iglesias, who announced his resignation May 31. (Note: Iglesias will leave his post September 30. End note). Most press commentary has been highlighting ex-Prime Minister and current World Bank Vice-President Roberto Danino as the Peruvian nominee. Leading daily "El Comercio" reported June 8 that President Toledo is pushing Danino's candidacy and has instructed GOP officials to ensure that Danino's candidacy is well-managed, to avoid repetition of the failed effort to field a Peruvian candidate to head the OAS.

12. (SBU) On June 9, however, influential business daily "Gestion" reported that Roberto Danino does not want the position, and quoted executive branch officials as saying that two countries in the region are pushing instead for Javier Silva Rute, ex-Finance Minister and current IMF director for Peru, to be nominated. In addition, daily "Peru 21" said that President Toledo has not yet indicated he will support Danino for the position. "Peru 21" quoted the President as saying that, "We will examine closely," the idea of nominating Danino for the IDB Presidency.

13. (C) Comment. The GOP was broadly criticized by Peru's press for mishandling the OAS Secretary General election by not pushing its own candidate, thereby seeing regional rival Chile scoop up the prize. That perception will color how the GOP approaches the IDB election. End comment.
